Dear Ken:

The compassion and generosity of many created a remarkable September, which is Childhood Cancer Awareness Month, for the Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation! With tremendous support in the donation of time, talent and resources, from the PSA campaign with Joe and Jill Biden with the Imagine Dragons, to the Biden Summit in DC, to special experiences with pre-game festivities for children and their families, to our annual Champions for Children Gala, we came together to BE THERE for families tackling childhood cancer.

Our work is made possible with your generous spirit. We are grateful for your help and for your 2018 gift of $20,000.00* to the 14th Annual Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation Champions for Children Gala on September 21st at Cipriani 42nd Street in New York. We raised $1.4 million! These dollars will be at work in important ways to provide financial, emotional and practical support to patients and families as need continues to increase dramatically in the NY/NJ area.

It was a memorable night in honoring Dr. Steve Corwin of NewYork-Presbyterian, Mark Lazarus of NBC and Justin Tuck of Goldman Sachs and football fame. These individuals reflect the vital spectrum of partnership in our mission and the best in professional achievements and civic leadership in our community.

Thank you for choosing to BE THERE for our families from diagnosis to recovery and beyond. Best wishes to you and your family for healthy and happy holidays ahead.

Best regards,

Keli Coughlin Joyce
